Darts Drivel – Week 8

Fines, roll overs and El Presidente

No funnies this week. Just the serious stuff. Lots covered at the committee meeting but I left my notes behind so this is Marvo the memory man stuff. Two teams failed to trap at the meeting. Warrants have been issued and a debt collecting firm have been contracted to collect the fines.

Age groups on 5 Dec. Over 45's at Golfers Rest and youngsters at East Linton. Register on the night.

Knock out Cup 12 Dec.

Joe Graham Pairs will take place on Monday 19th December in conjunction with the Xmas Draw. All teams to bring a bottle for the draw which will take place in the Golfers Rest. Registration, money and allocation of partners will take place on the night. Super 5's at Rugby Club on 6/2/17. Under 18's can be registered but can only play in home league games if Licence holder agrees. They cannot play in away games or competitions.

No tote winner. It's a £140 roll over next week. Congratulations to Alan McCue on winning the El Presidente nomination as he hopes to secure another 25 years as top man at ELBC.
