Darts Drivel – Week 2

Retiring at 67

For a couple of seasons now Colin Cunningham has been talking of retirement and the problem of hitting 67. He didn't turn up this week and the rumour is, it's because he couldn't hit higher than 67 in his last game. So were was Coco? There have been a few high profile creepy clown sightings so hopefully he's just clowning around and will soon be back at the board.

Auldhoose & East Linton, I need registration details. Leave lists with Karen at the Golfers for me or email to malky.g.mitchell@gmail.com. Scores can also be emailed, to that address, and weekly scorecards can be left with Karen at the Golfers.

Carolyne Howson's 120 highest checkout still stands.

Don't clown about get your eyes tested

Some clown mistook Craig Brown for Graeme Radin on the score sheet. C Brown, G Radin they all look the same when Sheepy's writing. Thanks to Karen's bigger writing Andrew Whellans got credited too, so along with Graeme he joins Alex Nichol and Gary Higgins on the top of the 180 table with 1 each. I'm getting an eye test.
