

North Berwick Coastal and District Darts League 2016/2017

Darts Drivel – Week 4

An Old Hack

This week's darts journalism focuses on the modern day hacker not the journalist as author Ethrick Brown, sponsor of the County Hotel away shirt, gets his website hacked. Some smart arse added a section to his web site www.ethrickbrown.co.uk which gives details of the North Berwick Coastal and District League. One darts enthusiast says "All the league tables, registration details, fixtures and admin stuff are listed, it's great." Others weren't so sure. Brian Millar said "What about the tote, Where's ma money?" Fuzzy wasn't fussed about his fortune. "It's just another £30 from my favourite flutter" He expressed. "Have you bought a tote ticket?" You know it makes sense. So buy a tote ticket and check out Ethrick Brown's website to find out if the old hack was hacked or is it just a cheap publicity stunt.
